Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The New England Center for Children's mission is to provide state-of-the-art education and individualized treatment-with care and respect-for children with autism. Its vision is be the premier leader in the field of autism (Continued on Schedule O),a world-renowned resource to whom parents and teachers, researchers and policymakers can continue to turn. NECC will achieve this in two ways: - by continuing to provide the highest quality educational experience for the children at NECC; and- by assisting a greater population of families and professionals confronting autism by sharing with them what we have learned through our curriculum and research and through the creation of model programs in public schools.
