Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Trustees of
Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc., as of December 31, 2009 and the related statements of activities, cash flows, and functional expenses for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc., as of December 31, 2009 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued a report dated October 28, 2010 on our consideration of Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and important for assessing the results of our audit.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements of Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc., taken as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal/state awards is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by the State of New Jersey Policy Circular P7.06 and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Information for the year ended December 31, 2008 is presented for comparative purposes only and was extracted from the financial statements presented for that year, on which we expressed an unqualified opinion in our report dated April 28, 2009.

1. Organization and Program Services

The Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc., (the "Organization") is a non-profit corporation, organized to enhance the capacity of individual non-profit organizations to provide services; foster better understanding of, and provide information on, non-profit organizations; and help formulate public policy on matters of concern to New Jersey's non-profit community.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting and Financial Statement Presentation
The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Revenues and expenses are recognized and recorded when earned or incurred. The Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Publication Inventory
Publication inventory is stated at cost (first-in, first-out basis).

Property and Equipment
Property and equipment are capitalized at cost or fair market value when acquired. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the individual assets.

Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations when incurred. Betterments and renewals are capitalized. When property and equipment are sold or otherwise disposed of, the asset account and related accumulated depreciation or amortization account are relieved, and any gain or loss included in operations.

Contributions
Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

Income Tax Status
The Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc. has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service concluding that it is exempt from federal corporate income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, it has been classified as an organization under Section 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Income Tax Status (Continued)
On January 1, 2009, the Organization adopted the provision of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. This provision requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a 'more-likely-than-not' threshold. This applies to positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The implementation of this provision had no impact on the Organization's statement of financial position or statement of activities. The Organization does not believe its financial statements include (or reflect) any uncertain tax positions. There are no penalties and interest reflected in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009. The Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.'s tax returns for the years 2009, 2008, 2007 and 2006 are within the statute of limitations for IRS audit.

Concentration of Credit Risk
The Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc. places its temporary cash accounts with creditworthy, high quality financial institutions. At times these accounts may exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insured limits of up to $250,000 at December 31, 2009, however, The Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc. has not experienced any losses in such accounts. As of December 31, 2009 The Organization's cash balances were under the insured limits.

Donated Equipment
Donated equipment is reflected as contributions, at estimated fair market value, at date of receipt. Depreciation is calculated over a three to five year period, using the straight-line method.

Estimates
In preparing financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts/Grants Receivable
Accounts receivable and grants receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable.

There was no allowance for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2009.

Deferred Revenue
Deferred revenue amounts consist of corporate, foundation, state grants, and membership fees paid in advance. Deferred corporate, foundation, and state grants are classified as restricted or unrestricted revenue, based on the nature of the individual grant. Such amounts are recognized as revenue only to the extent to which related expenses have been incurred.

Expense Allocation
The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and in the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Reclassification
Certain reclassifications were made to the 2008 financial statements presentation in order to conform to the 2009 financial statements presentation.

3. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consists of the following:

	2009	Estimated Useful Lives
Furniture and fixtures	$ 94,229	3-5 Years
Less: Accumulated depreciation	94,229
	$ -0-

Used office furniture has been donated to the Organization. The furniture does not have a fair market value and, as such, is not reflected in the financial statements.

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2009 totaled $493.

4. Deferred Support and Revenue

Deferred support and revenue consist of the following:

Deferred support - temporarily restricted	$ 31,540
Membership dues	47,153
	$ 78,693

5. Line of Credit - Bank

On December 1, 2000, the Organization secured a revolving line of credit facility up to $50,000 that was extended from December 1, 2009 to December 1, 2010, effective on December 2, 2009. Interest is charged at a rate based on an independent index, which is the highest prime rate as published in the Wall Street Journal plus 1.25%. At December 31, 2009, the line of credit facility had no outstanding balance. The line of credit is secured by all of the assets of the Organization.

6. Commitment

On September 30, 2002, the Corporation entered into a renewal of the original lease for office space. The new term commenced April 1, 2003 through March 31, 2012, requiring a monthly lease payment of $2,599 through March 31, 2007, $2,729 from April 1, 2007 through March 31, 2010, and $2,859 from April 1, 2010 through March 31, 2012.

The minimum future lease payments under non-cancelable operating leases at December 31, 2009 are as follows:

December 31,
2010	$ 33,915
2011	34,303
2012	8,576
Total	$ 76,794

Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2009 totaled $33,269

7. Tax Deferred Annuity Retirement Plan

The Corporation sponsors a tax deferred annuity retirement plan for its full time employees. Participation is voluntary and the employee may contribute in any taxable year, via salary reduction, an amount not to exceed $16,500, the limit specified in the Internal Revenue Service Code Section 402(g)(4). The Corporation does not match contributions.

8. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through October 28, 2010, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

9. Comparative Financial Information

The financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information in total, but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008, from which the summarized information was derived.

10. Liquidity

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, the corporation has incurred a net decrease in net assets of $46,966 during the year ended December 31, 2009 and as of December 31, 2009, had a working capital deficiency of $64,126 and a net asset deficiency of $55,852.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

To the Board of Trustees of
Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc., as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009 and have issued our report thereon dated October 28, 2010. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc's., internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Inc.'s financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the management, Board of Trustees and others within the organization, and governmental awarding agencies and pass-through entities, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
