To The Directors of National Jewelry Institute, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities from cash transaction (Part IV) of National Jewelry Institute, Inc as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 and the related statement of revenue collected, expenses paid and changes in fund balances (Part I and statement of functional expenses paid (Part II) for the years then ended, as included in the accompanying Internal Revenue Service form 990. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organizations management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted out audit in accordance with standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that out audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion

As described in the note to the financial statements, these financial statements were prepared in conformity with the accounting practices prescribed by the Internal Revenue Service and the Office of the State of New York, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles In addition, the organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements included in the Form 990 are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of National Jewelry Institute, Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the revenue collected, expenses paid and charges, fund balances and functional expenses paid for the years ended on the basis of accounting described in the note to the financial statements.

This report is solely for the information use of the directors of National Jewelry Institute, Inc. and for the Internal Revenue Service Form and the Office of the State of New York and should not be used for any other purpose.

National Jewelry Institute, Inc. Note to Financial Statements For the Year Ended December 31, 2009

The financial statements have been prepared in the format of Federal Form 990, following the instructions of the Internal Revenue Service and the State of New York As allowable per the Form 990 instructions, the Organization prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying Form 990 financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.
