After completing projects of infrastructure (housing, water, sewer, electricity, school) the principal activity of Austin Helps Honduras continues to be support of scholarships for the children of Colonia Solidaridad, the village constructed (beginning in 1999) to relocate flodd victims of Hurrican Mitch (1998).

Scholarships are offered to all childrend of Colonia Solidaridad who need economic assistance for school uniforms, shoes, school supplies and incidental expenses, especially those who are able to attend school beyond the government provided sixth grade. Canidates are screened and recommended by a committee of Honduran agents (Juan Pablo Aguilera and Maria A. Owen), then finally approved by a US committee of sponsors and reapproved each semester only if the students have made passing grades Also, some economic assistance is provided for a few adult for short-term vocational training.

Other income - line 10 includes money raised from fund raisers, including book sales, sale of note cards and pancake breakfasts

 No amount was enteted into line 1 as there is no support received from a government unit.

The reason Schedule A was not submitted with the original return is because I am doing this for the first time (the previous treasurer passed away) and I was very confused about what should be submitted and how to complete the form I did go to the IRS center and they were not able to assist with these form. I ask that you waive any penalties as Austin Helps Honduras has always filed their return in a timely manner. Thank you for your consideration.
