Explanation of: Reasonable Cause for Late Filing of Form 990-EZ

* The Arizona Future Educators Association is a non-profit 501c-3 corporation established solely as a vehicle to handle student funds for conference travel, registrations, scholarships, awards, and other student activities. Arizona FEA members are all students in Educational career classes. The majority of our funds come directly from students and donations for the students. We have moved as quickly as we could to catch up on the filings and will be submitting the 2008 return on time with this return. We have hired an accountant to maintain the books and file the returns on a timely manner in the future. Since we are a non profit, we will never pay any taxes. We operate on a zero budget each year. To assess a penalty would only hurt the students. We respectfully request that for the students educational sake, that you waive any penalties that may be assessed due to late filing of this return. It is through no fault of the students that the taxes were not filed. It was due to one government bureaucracy going through political and internal changes. Let's not penalize the students. Thank you for reading our reasons for waiver. We appreciate your understanding and believe that at least for this administration we have solved the problem by hiring an accountant to help us oversee our fiscal processes. Should you need to contact me, my number is (602) 542-5356. Sincerely,
Dennis Fiscus
Arizona Career & Technical Education Student Organizations Team Director

Explanation of: How We Determine Which Recipients Qualify to Receive Payments

The purpose of the awards/scholarships is to recognize students for outstanding achievement and their demonstration of leadership, commitment and excellence as well as their contributions to promoting and representing the Arizona FEA organization in a professional manner. There are three levels of recognition - Merit - Excellent - Master. Each level has its own level of achievement that students must meet in order to earn the award. Activities can be conducted from the FEA State Conference through the next years State Conference. All activities will be listed on the official entry form with a brief explanation of each activity. Each activity is scored and the students with the highest score is awarded the scholarship.
Only 2 scholarships were awarded this year. One for $1000 and another for $500 and
