Seminars and Training

Founder and President Bill J Henson Jr taught seminars and training sessions focused on educating and equipping evangelical churches, campus ministries and other faith communities to reflect Christ's love for SSA and LGBTQ people in the church. Bill spoke at over 30 events at churches, universities and conferences around the United States (most in the Northeast). Most notably, Bill was selected to present two seminars at Urbana – the international mission conference held once every three years in St. Louis, Missouri and attended by over 15,000 people. Over 700 college ministry and church leaders attended his seminars. Throughout the year, Bill trained key church and ministry teams for practical care and outreach to LGBTQ persons We continue to lead the way in helping churches maintain orthodoxy while radically loving and caring for pre-teens, teens and young adults who wrestle with sexual and gender identity

Counseling and Suicide Prevention

Bill counseled over 100 individuals, families and couples involving a wide range of sexual and gender identity issues Many were college students from universities where Bill has spoken. Many lack support. their families do not know about their struggle, and they financially cannot access other support. One of the highlights of the year was hosting our Gay Teen Suicide Prevention seminar in the evangelical church featuring suicide prevention experts from both the evangelical and the LGBTQ communities. Our counseling and suicide prevention initiatives are saving lives by caring for evangelical teens and pre-teens who are vulnerable to religious rejection. Bill's Relational Orientation Counseling focuses on repairing and enhancing parent-child relationships where sexual and gender identity issues are present. Specifically, he specializes in creating a safe, non-judgmental, non-moralistic counseling atmosphere where trust can be enhanced or repaired between parent and child. This is not reparative therapy; this is relational healing. We also announced the formation of The Lighthouse, a weekly access point in the evangelical church for evangelical teens who experience gender and sexual identity issues We hope to implement this new resource in late 2010 or early 2011.

Newsletters and Online Communication

We had to limit our mail-out newsletters to two in 2009 (down from three in 2008) due to financial concerns However, we continued to expand our online presence and our email newsletter FOTOS Ministries, also known as Lead Them Home, now has a ministry website, a blog, a podcast, and a Twitter account. All of these venues become important platforms for accomplishing our mission and sharing our vision with those we do not touch directly
