Mercy Ministries International, Inc. (the "Ministry") assists organizations in providing residential programs on a global basis for troubled young women at no financial cost to the troubled young women. These programs are specifically designed to promote faith, change hearts and stop destructive cycles in an organized living environment by addressing the whole person: spiritual, physical, and emotional. There are three international organizations that have received the vision of the Ministry and have developed the programs comprising the Ministry located in the United States, United Kingdom and Canada. The Ministry has licensed the use and implemented the program for the homes in these countries as agreed by the parties per a Ministry Collaboration Agreement. The Ministry will oversee the uniform implementation of and maintenance of its standards.

Form 990, Part VI, line 12c:

If the governing board or committee of Mercy Ministry International, Inc. (the "Ministry") has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

With regard to employees of the Ministry, they are required to complete a Disclosure Statement to report any actual, attempted or suspected violations of this policy by anyone in the Ministry. The Disclosure Statement is also required to be completed by all employees to indicate the existence of actual or potential conflict of interest before entering into a business relationship.

To ensure the Ministry operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews of arrangements that may cause conflicts of interest shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

* Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.

* Whether business relationships conform to the Ministry's written policies, and are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

When conducting the periodic reviews, the Ministry may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

As of December 31, 2008, Mercy Ministries International, Inc. (the "Ministry") had a note receivable from Mercy Ministries Incorporated (Australia) of $55,000, entered into to assist the Australia affiliate with operating expenses. During 2009, the Australia affiliate ceased operations. Accordingly, the Ministry wrote off the $55,000 note receivable and approximately $79,000 in Ministry Collaboration Agreement fees receivable outstanding at the date the Australia affiliate ceased operations.

Subsequent to the home's closing, the Ministry entered into a loan agreement to advance up to $60,000 to Mercy Ministries Limited, a holding company assigned with winding down the former affiliate's operations.

As of December 31, 2009, the Ministry had advanced $18,507 under the agreement. Advances earn interest at a fixed rate and are secured by the holding company's land and building. All amounts advanced under the loan agreement are due after the liquidation of the former affiliate's primary assets. Payment in full occurred April 22, 2010.
